Notes for Verse 11

Verse 11. from . . . sacrifice . . . taken way . . . abomination -- (Da 11:31). As to this epoch, which probably is prophetically germinant and manifold; the profanation of the temple by Antiochus (in the month Ijar of the year 145 B.C., till the restoration of the worship by Judas Maccabeus on the twenty-fifth day of the ninth month [Chisleu] of 148 B.C., according to the Seleucid era, 1290 days; forty-five days more elapsed before Antiochus' death in the month Shebat of 148 B.C., so ending the Jews' calamities

2 Thess. 2:3-4

1335 days: The transition from the old order to the new order will take 45 days. During this period several events will take place.

- The angels will be judged. ( I Corinthians 6:3, Matthew 25:41)
- The survivors will be judged (Matthew 25:31-46)
- Assignments for the saints will set in motion (Daniel 12:13, Jeremiah 30:9, Matthew 19:28)
- Nations, property and laws will be established for the next 1000 years (Zechariah 14:17-21)
